

O Blessed Lady of Carmel: what grace, what glory, God has bestowed upon thee! Would that I could proclaim thy greatness as the beloved Daughter of the Father, the Virgin Mother of the Son and the chaste Spouse of the Holy Ghost. What cause have I for thankfulness that I partake of the privileges promised by thee, O Mary, to those who enroll themselves amongst the children of Carmel.

Dear Mother, in thee and with thee I praise God for the blessings lavished on me, thy child. Tell Him all that I say to thee about my necessities and the desires of my heart. Obtain for me the grace to be ever submissive to the will of God, so that His designs may be accomplished in me now and always. Protect me, O Mother of Carmel, all through life and, if my entrance into Heaven be delayed, oh, then, forsake me not, but intercede for my release from Purgatory according to thy promise and lead me into the presence of thy beloved Son—that I may love and praise the good God with thee, O my Mother, throughout eternity. Amen.
